

Dr. Babita Gaur, Librarian

Ph.D, MLIS, PG DBP

Areas of interest sharing knowledge, writing, online open access, automation and networking.

Attended and participated in workshops and professional development programs like Resource sharing, Web of knowledge, information literacy programs, knowledge sharing on sustainable development etc.

Participated and presented papers in various National and International Conferences and proceedings on topics like understanding cloud computing for libraries, digital libraries,

Wrote chapters for books like Organization of information in knowledge society, college libraries and changing needs, mobile apps-new adjuncts to Libraries etc.

Worked as member of newsletter committees in conferences.

Attended one orientation and one refresher course.

Organized reference knowledge week, book exhibition cum book fairs, library orientation, career orientation program, book talk, quiz and workshop for students and teachers.

Latest

Tecnia SRFLISindia Summit 2015, Grey to Green from 11-12 April, 2015, New Delhi, India and presented paper on “Mobile Phone for Library Management Enhancement with Reference to Academic Libraries” which got published in the conference proceedings ISBN: 978-1-63415-230-3 and also worked as member organizing committee for the same.

Organized workshop for students and teachers on “Plagiarism and how to avoid it” during the month of April (8-9), 2015 in Gargi College

Attended Open Data workshop by World Bank hands on training on 24/7/15

Library Orientation program for new students during 22/7/15-28/7/15 for Gargi Students

Participated in National Seminar on “Inculcating Reading Habits in Digital Era: A challenge to Libraries conducted by Indian Library Association at Pragati Maidan , New Delhi on 30th August 2015.