

Dr Joya Bhattacharya pursued her MA and MPhil from the Department of Political Science, Delhi University. She joined Gargi College as Assistant Professor in 1995. She is currently an Associate Professor and has completed her doctoral studies from the Centre for Federal Studies, Jamia University.

She has written a chapter on Educational under Globalisation, in the book India in the Globalizing Era, edited by Prof M. P. Singh and Dr Shubhendu Raj, Manak, 2009

She has published an article on, From Subordination to Equal Participation, in the Indian Journal of Federal Studies. ISSN 0976-8408, in volume 1, 2011.

She has published a Research Communication on Discourses on Empowerment, in the Indian Journal of Federal Studies, Vol X111, 2012.

She presented a paper on Women and Citizenship, in the International Women's World Conference, held in Ottawa, Canada, in July 2011.

She also presented a paper on Inclusion and Participation of Women in ULBs, in a seminar organised by Jamia and Al Mustafa University, Iran in September 2011.

She successfully attended the International Winter School on Federalism and Governance , held in Austria and Italy, in February 2012.

She presented a paper on Trends in Women's Representations , in Istanbul University at the POLITSCI'13 conference in November 2013.

She presented a paper on Gender and Representations , in the International Conference on Women's Studies held in Colombo, Sri Lanka in February 2015.