Brave New World: An ode to diversity

30th, 31st January &
1st February

GARGI COLLEGE
STUDENTS' COUNCIL

REVERIE 2019: BRAVE NEW WORLD

CONCEPT NOTE

The times human spirit came together for a cause. To set turbulence in the wind and ring the clamour of revolution. The times human spirit sensed the need for change and the need to give in their mind, thoughts, body and soul for that one change and years of freedom.

Freedom, a word that can set a human spirit, to commotion, disturb it, motivate it, drive it and, make it triumph.

Decade after decade, with passing year, week, day and moment we have seen little changes making big differences around us. We have cried in unison, have laughed in unison, have fought and have celebrated.

Reverie is more than just a festival, it's an insignia, a symbol of recognition, for whatever we choose to make it resonate with. Over the years, we have celebrated what relates to us as humans, we believe, it's time to celebrate what our 'human' is.

It's time to celebrate landmark revolutions of recent days that gave a clarion call to the wrong in the system.

It's time to celebrate justice, concern, faith and love.

Hence, we present to you, Reverie 2018: A Brave New World.

The brave world that keeps courage in the dear heart.

The new world that knows change and adapting to it like the back of its hand.

The Brave New World that waves the flag of freedom.

The revolutions whose essence we mean to thread into are:

- Me Too Movement
- Animal Conservation
- Pride

These three movements have been the landmark of 2018, and the decade.

The efforts, the smiles, the tears and the kisses we shared for these causes only send waves of joy in my heart.

Let's celebrate, let's revere the humans.
