Professional Summary

My professional journey focus is on Teacher Education and Social Science Education at pre-service as well as in-service domains.

It includes collaborating with teachers and administrators of school education and with liberal education teachers in higher education settings.

Both my training (SSSIHL) and experience (SPM college & Gargi College) has a specific focus on teacher education departments located in liberal education centers for higher education.

Understanding the implications of this location is a matter of continuous professional reflection for me.

Undergraduate research and its possibilities for creating confidence amongst students in contributing original ideas and possible solutions for contemporary problems has inspired me in my work.

My students' intuitive understanding enabled possibilities of emergence of new themes for me through fieldwork.

Contributed to student empowerment through work in Placement Cell (17 years)

Developed a macro perspective of governance and management as Coordinator, IQAC(Institutional Quality Assurance Cell)(7 years) & 6 years as Member, NIRF(National Institutional Ranking Framework)

Areas of interest:

History of education;

Ethnographic research;

Work culture in centers of higher education;
Philosophical ideas in children;
Creating content for children in science and social sciences
